A Reading from the Book of the Prophet Amos (6:1-7).

“Woe to those who are at ease in Zion, and to those who feel secure on the mountain of Samaria, the notable men of the first of the nations, to whom the house of Israel comes! Pass over to Calneh, and see, and from there go to Hamath the great; then go down to Gath of the Philistines. Are you better than these kingdoms? Or is their territory greater than your territory, O you who put far away the day of disaster and bring near the seat of violence? “Woe to those who lie on beds of ivory and stretch themselves out on their couches, and eat lambs from the flock and calves from the midst of the stall, who sing idle songs to the sound of the harp and like David invent for themselves instruments of music, who drink wine in bowls and anoint themselves with the finest oils, but are not grieved over the ruin of Joseph! Therefore they shall now be the first of those who go into exile, and the revelry of those who stretch themselves out shall pass away.”

Psalm 146. Lauda, anima mea.

© 1936, Jerome Webster Meachen

- I will Praise the Lord, O my soul: while I live, will I praise the / Lord; *
- yea, as long as I have any being, I will sing praises
unto my / God.
- 2 O put not your trust in princes, nor in any child of / man; *
- for there is no / help in them.
- 3 For when the breath of man goeth forth, he shall turn
again to his / earth, *
- and then all his thoughts / perish.
- 4 Blessed is he that hath the God of Jacob for his / help, *
- and whose hope is in the Lord his / God:
- 5 Who made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that therein / is; *
- who keepeth his promise for / ever;
- 6 Who helpeth them to right that suffer / wrong; *
- who feedeth the / hungry.
- 7 The Lord looseth men out of / prison; *
- the Lord giveth sight to the / blind.
- 8 The Lord helpeth them that are / fallen; *
- the Lord careth for the / righteous.
- 9 The Lord careth for the strangers;
he defendeth the fatherless and / widow: *
- as for the way of the ungodly, he turneth it up side / down.
- 10 The Lord thy God, O Sion, shall be King for ever- / more, *
- and throughout all gene- / rations.

A Reading from the First Epistle St. Paul to St. Timothy (6:11-19).

But as for you, O man of God, flee these things. Pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, love, steadfastness, gentleness. Fight the good fight of the faith. Take hold of the eternal life to which you were called and about which you made the good confession in the presence of many witnesses. I charge you in the presence of God, who gives life to all things, and of Christ Jesus, who in his testimony before Pontius Pilate made the good confession, to keep the commandment unstained and free from reproach until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ, which he will display at the proper time—he who is the blessed and only Sovereign, the King of kings and Lord of lords, who alone has immortality, who dwells in unapproachable light, whom no one has ever seen or can see. To him be honor and eternal dominion. Amen. As for the rich in this present age, charge them not to be haughty, nor to set their hopes on the uncertainty of riches, but on God, who richly provides us with everything to enjoy. They are to do good, to be rich in good works, to be generous and ready to share, thus storing up treasure for themselves as a good foundation for the future, so that they may take hold of that which is truly life.

✠ The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ According to St. Luke (16:19-31).

People Glory be to thee, O Lord.

Jesus said, “There was a rich man who was clothed in purple and fine linen and who feasted sumptuously every day. And at his gate was laid a poor man named Lazarus, covered with sores, who desired to be fed with what fell from the rich man's table. Moreover, even the dogs came and licked his sores. The poor man died and was carried by the angels to Abraham's side. The rich man also died and was buried, and in Hades, being in torment, he lifted up his eyes and saw Abraham far off and Lazarus at his side. And he called out, 'Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus to dip the end of his finger in water and cool my tongue, for I am in anguish in this flame.' But Abraham said, 'Child, remember that you in your lifetime received your good things, and Lazarus in like manner bad things; but now he is comforted here, and you are in anguish. And besides all this, between us and you a great chasm has been fixed, in order that those who would pass from here to you may not be able, and none may cross from there to us.' And he said, 'Then I beg you, father, to send him to my father's house—for I have five brothers—so that he may warn them, lest they also come into this place of torment.' But Abraham said, 'They have Moses and the Prophets; let them hear them.' And he said, 'No, father Abraham, but if someone goes to them from the dead, they will repent.' He said to him, 'If they do not hear Moses and the Prophets, neither will they be convinced if someone should rise from the dead.'"
