A Reading from the Book of Ecclesiasticus
(27:30-28:7).

Anger and wrath, these also are abominations, and the sinful man will hold them fast. The one who seeks vengeance will paid vengeance from the Lord, and he who keeps a record will have his own sins recorded. Forgive your neighbor the wrong he has done, and then your sins will be pardoned when you pray. Does one person harbor anger against another and yet seek for healing from the Lord? Does he have no mercy toward someone like himself and yet pray concerning his own sins? If he himself, being flesh, maintains wrath, who will make atonement for his sins? Remember the end of your life and cease from enmity, remember destruction and death and be true to the commandments. Remember the commandments and do not be angry with your neighbor; remember the covenant of the Most High and overlook error.

Here endeth the Reading.

Psalm 103:8-13.

8 The LORD is full of compassion and / mercy, *
long-suffering, and of great / goodness.

- 9 He will not alway be / chiding; *
neither keepeth he his anger for / ever.
- 10 He hath not dealt with us after our / sins; *
nor rewarded us according to our / wickednesses.
- 11 For look how high the heaven is in comparison of the / earth; *
so great is his mercy also toward them that / fear him.
- 12 Look how wide also the east is from the / west; *
so far hath he set our sins / from us.
- 13 Yea, like as a father pitieth his own / children; *
even so is the LORD merciful unto them that / fear him.

A Reading from the Epistle of St. Paul to the Romans (14:5-12).

One person esteems one day as better than another, while another esteems all days alike. Each one should be fully convinced in his own mind. The one who observes the day, observes it in honor of the Lord. The one who eats, eats in honor of the Lord, since he gives thanks to God, while the one who abstains, abstains in honor of the Lord and gives thanks to God. For none of us lives to himself, and none of us dies to himself. For if we live, we live to the Lord, and if we die, we die to the Lord. So then, whether we live or whether we die, we are the Lord's. For to this end Christ died and lived again, that he might be Lord both of the dead and of the living. Why do you pass judgment on your brother? Or you, why do you despise your brother? For we will all stand before the judgment seat of God; for it is written, “As I live, says the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess to God.” So then each of us will give an account of himself to God.

The Word of the Lord.

✠ The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ

According to St. Matthew (18:21-35).

People Glory be to thee, O Lord.

Then Peter came up and said to him, “Lord, how often will my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? As many as seven times?” Jesus said to him, “I do not say to you seven times, but seventy-seven times. Therefore the kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who wished to settle accounts with his servants. When he began to settle, one was brought to him who owed him ten thousand talents. And since he could not pay, his master ordered him to be sold, with his wife and children and all that he had, and payment to be made. So the servant fell on his knees, imploring him, ‘Have patience with me, and I will pay you everything.’ And out of pity for him, the master of that servant released him and forgave him the debt. But when that same servant went out, he found one of his fellow servants who owed him a hundred denarii, and seizing him, he began to choke him, saying, ‘Pay what you owe.’ So his fellow servant fell down and pleaded with him, 'Have patience with me, and I will pay you.' He refused and went and put him in prison until he should pay the debt. When his fellow servants saw what had taken place, they were greatly distressed, and they went and reported to their master all that had taken place. Then his master summoned him and said to him, 'You wicked servant! I forgave you all that debt because you pleaded with me. And should not you have had mercy on your fellow servant, as I had mercy on you?' And in anger his master delivered him to the jailers, until he should pay all his debt. So also my heavenly Father will do to every one of you, if you do not forgive your brother from your heart."

The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise be to thee, O Christ.
