A Reading from the Book of Exodus
(16:2-4, 9-15).

And the whole congregation of the people of Israel murmured against Moses and Aaron in the wilderness, and said to them, "Would that we had died by the hand of the Lord in the land of Egypt, when we sat by the fleshpots and ate bread to the full; for you have brought

- 14 He divided the sea, and let them go / through;*
he made the waters to stand on an / heap.
- 15 In the daytime also he led them with a / cloud,*
and all the night through with a light of / fire.
- 16 He clave the hard rocks in the / wilderness,*
and gave them drink thereof, as it had been out of the great / depth.
- 17 He brought waters out of the stony / rock,*
so that it gushed out like the / rivers.
- 18 Yet for all this they sinned more a-/gainst him,*
and provoked the Most Highest in the / wilderness.
- 19 They tempted God in their / hearts,*
and required meat for their / lust.
- 20 They spake against God also, /saying,*
Shall God prepare a table in the / wilderness?
- 21 He smote the stony rock indeed, that the water
gushed out, and the streams flowed with- / al;*
but can he give bread also, or provide flesh for his / people?
- 22 When the LORD heard this, he was / wroth;*
so the fire was kindled in Jacob, and there came up heavy displeasure against / Israel;
- 23 Because they believed not in / God,*
and put not their trust in his / help.
- 24 So he commanded the clouds a- / bove,*
and opened the doors of / heaven.
- 25 He rained down manna also upon them for
to/ eat,*
and gave them food from / heaven.
- 26 So man did eat angels' / food;*
for he sent them meat e- / nough.

A Reading from the Epistle of St. Paul to the Ephesians (4:1-16).

Now this I affirm and testify in the Lord, that you must no longer live as the Gentiles do, in the futility of their minds; they are darkened in their understanding, alienated from the life of God because of the ignorance that is in them, due to their hardness of heart; they have become callous and have given themselves up to licentiousness, greedy to practice every kind of uncleanness. You did not so learn Christ!—assuming that you have heard about him and were taught in him, as the truth is in Jesus. Put off your old nature which belongs to your former manner of life and is corrupt through deceitful lusts, and be renewed in the spirit of your minds, and put on the new nature, created after the likeness of God in true righteousness and holiness. Therefore, putting away falsehood, let every one speak the truth with his neighbor, for we are members one of another.

✠ The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ
According to St. John (6:24-35).

People Glory be to thee, O Lord.

On the next day when the people who remained after the feeding of the five thousand saw that Jesus was not there, nor his disciples, they themselves got into the boats and went to Caper'na-um, seeking Jesus. When they found him on the other side of the sea, they said to him, “Rabbi, when did you come here?” Jesus answered them, “Truly, truly, I say to you, you seek me, not because you saw signs, but because you ate your fill of the loaves. Do not labor for the food which perishes, but for the food which endures to eternal life, which the Son of man will give to you; for on him has God the Father set his seal.” Then they said to him, “What must we do, to be doing the works of God?” Jesus answered them, “This is the work of God, that you believe in him whom he has sent.” So they said to him, “Then what sign do you do, that we may see, and believe you? What work do you perform? Our fathers ate the manna in the wilderness; as it is written, ‘He gave them bread from heaven to eat.’” Jesus then said to them, “Truly, truly, I say to you, it was not Moses who gave you the bread from heaven; my Father gives you the true bread from heaven. For the bread of God is that which comes down from heaven, and gives life to the world.” They said to him, “Lord, give us this bread always.” Jesus said to them, “I am the bread of life; he who comes to me shall not hunger, and he who believes in me shall never thirst.”

The Gospel of the Lord.
