8:00 A.M. SAID MASS

A Reading from the Book of Ecclesiasticus
(44:1-10, 13-14).

Let us now praise famous men and our fathers in their generations. The Lord apportioned to them great glory, his majesty from the beginning. There were those who ruled in their kingdoms, and were men renowned for their power, giving counsel by their understanding and proclaiming prophecies; leaders of the people in their deliberations and in understanding of the people's learning, wise in their words of instruction; those who composed musical tunes and set forth verses in writing; rich men furnished with resources, living peaceably in their dwelling places—all these were honored in their generations and were the glory of their times. There are some of them who have left a name, so that their praises are declared. And there are some who have no memorial, who have perished as though they had not lived; they have become as though they had not been born, and so have their children after them. But these were, nevertheless, men of mercy, whose righteous deeds have not been forgotten; their posterity will continue forever, and their glory will not be blotted out. Their bodies were buried in peace, and their name lives to all generations.

Here endeth the Reading.

Psalm 149. Cantate Domino.

1. O sing unto the LORD a new song; *
let the congregation of saints praise him.
2. Let Israel rejoice in him that made him, *
and let the children of Sion
be joyful in their King.
3. Let them praise his Name in the dance: *
let them sing praises unto him
with tabret and harp.
4. For the LORD hath pleasure in his people, *
and helpeth the meek hearted.
5. Let the saints be joyful with glory; *
let them rejoice in their beds.
6. Let the praises of God be in their mouth; *
and a two-edged sword in their hands;
7. To be avenged of the nations, *
and to rebuke the peoples;
8. To bind their kings in chains, *
and their nobles with links of iron;
- 9 To execute judgment upon them;
as it is written, *
Such honour have all his saints.

A Reading from the Revelation to St. John the Divine (7:9-17).

After this I looked, and behold, a great multitude that no one could number, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, clothed in white robes, with palm branches in their hands, and crying out with a loud voice, "Salvation belongs to our God who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb!" And all the angels were standing around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, saying, "Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might be to our God forever and ever! Amen." Then one of the elders addressed me, saying, "Who are these, clothed in white robes, and from where have they come?" I said to him, "Sir, you know." And he said to me, "These are they coming out of the great tribulation. They have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. Therefore they are before the throne of God, and serve him day and night in his temple; and he who sits on the throne will shelter them with his presence. They shall hunger no more, neither thirst anymore; the sun shall not strike them, nor any scorching heat. For the Lamb in the midst of the throne will be their shepherd, and he will guide them to springs of living water; and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes."

The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

✠ The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to St. Matthew (5:1-12).

People Glory be to thee, O Lord.

Seeing the crowds, Jesus went up on the mountain, and when he sat down his disciples came to him. And he opened his mouth and taught them, saying: "Blessed are <sub>4</sub> the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted. Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth. Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be satisfied. Blessed are the merciful, for they shall receive mercy. Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God. Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called sons of God. Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are you when others revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for so they persecuted the prophets who were before you.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise be to thee, O Christ.

*ALTAR FLOWERS ARE GIVEN TO THE GLORY OF GOD
AND
IN THANKSGIVING FOR
THE ANNIVERSARY OF MICHAEL AND MARGARET PINNAU.*
