Postlude

A Reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah (35:4-7a).

Say to those who are of a fearful heart, “Be strong, fear not! Behold, your God will come with vengeance, with the recompense of God. He will come and save you.” Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf unstopped; then shall the lame man leap like a hart, and the tongue of the dumb sing for joy. For waters shall break forth in the wilderness, and streams in the desert; the burning sand shall become a pool, and the thirsty ground springs of water.

The Word of the Lord.

Psalm 146: Lauda, anima mea

©2023 Todd Marchand

1 Praise the Lord, O my soul:

while I live, will I praise the / Lord; *
yea, as long as I have any being,
I will sing praises unto my / God.

2 O put not your trust in princes, nor in any child of / man;
for there is no help / in them.

3 For when the breath of man goeth forth,
He shall turn again to his / earth,
and then all his thoughts / perish.

4. Blessed is he that hath the God of Jacob for his / help, *

and whose hope is in the Lord his / God:

- 5 Who made heaven and earth,
the sea, and all that therein / is; *
who keepeth his promise for / ever;
- 6 Who helpeth them to right that suffer / wrong; *
who feedeth the / hungry.
- 7 The Lord looseth men out of / prison; *
the Lord giveth sight to the / blind.
- 8 The Lord helpeth them that are / fallen; *
the Lord careth for the / righteous.
- 9 The Lord careth for the strangers;
he defendeth the fatherless and / widow: *
as for the way of the ungodly,
he turneth it upside / down.
- 10 — / The Lord thy God, O Sion, shall be King for ever- / more, *
and throughout all gene- / rations.

A Reading from the Epistle of St. James (1:17-27).

Every good endowment and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights with whom there is no variation or shadow due to change. Of his own will he brought us forth by the word of truth that we should be a kind of first fruits of his creatures. Know this, my beloved brethren. Let every man be quick to hear, slow to speak, slow to anger, for the anger of man does not work the righteousness of God. Therefore put away all filthiness and rank growth of wickedness and receive with meekness the implanted word, which is able to save your souls. But be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves. For if any one is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man who observes his natural face in a mirror; for he observes himself and goes away and at once forgets what he was like. But he who looks into the perfect law, the law of liberty, and perseveres, being no hearer that forgets but a doer that acts, he shall be blessed in his doing. If any one thinks he is religious, and does not bridle his tongue but deceives his heart, this man's religion is vain. Religion that is pure and undefiled before God and the Father is this: to visit orphans and widows in their affliction, and to keep oneself unstained from the world.

The Word of the Lord.

✠ The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ
According to St. Mark (7:31-37).

People Glory be to thee, O Lord.

Now Jesus returned from the region of Tyre, and went through Sidon to the Sea of Galilee, through the region of the Decap'olis. And they brought to him a man who was deaf and had an impediment in his speech; and they besought him to lay his hand upon him. And taking him aside from the multitude privately, he put his fingers into his ears, and he spat and touched his tongue; and looking up to heaven, he sighed, and said to him, "Eph'phatha," that is, "Be opened." And his ears were opened, his tongue was released, and he spoke plainly. And he charged them to tell no one; but the more he charged them, the more zealously they proclaimed it. And they were astonished beyond measure, saying, "He has done all things well; he even makes the deaf hear and the dumb speak.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise be to thee, O Christ.
